

School Playground Inspection Training Course

Monday 10th April 2017 8.00am - 4.00pm

Whinfield Primary School, Augusta Close, Darlington. DL1 3HT

£130 per person (plus optional £95 for RPII exam)

Whinfield Primary School are delighted to host ROSPA to deliver their School Playground Inspection training course.

School Playground Inspection Course is aimed at those who are responsible for the routine (daily/weekly) and operational (monthly/quarterly) inspections of school play areas.

It focuses on equipment typically found within school playgrounds, rather than the sort of equipment found more generally in publicly accessible playgrounds.

It is ideal for anyone responsible for managing, inspecting and maintaining school play areas.

A RoSPA Certificate of Training will be given to all participants who complete the course.

Or the full RPII examination can also be undertaken on the same day (extra charges apply). This is a qualification which is aimed specifically at schools managing the routine and operational inspection of their outdoor playgrounds. It is a 3 year, RPII accredited qualification, based on an image based written and practical assessment.

The course will cover:
• Risk assessment	• Plastics
• Reporting procedures	• Rope
• Inspection procedures	• Chains and Connections
• Legal aspects	• Tyres
• Immobilisation of equipment	• Different types of surfacing
• Timber	• Cleanliness
• Steel	• Vegetation Timings
